The Most Holy Trinity

The worship center is dark; each parishioner holds an unlit candle. The pastor enters with a single lighted candle and begins lighting the candles of those at the ends of the pews. In turn, they light the candles of the people next to them, and so on. Slowly, the room is aglow in the light of a thousand candles, all lit from a single flame. As the pastor approaches the altar, we are careful to take notice that the candle he carried in has not changed in the least, and could light even another thousand candles. It is that way when we speak of God's love; no matter how often we share it, our own love grows brighter and stronger.

Through the example of one candle lighting a thousand we are able to better appreciate the Gospel. After the Resurrection, Jesus summons the eleven disciples to a mountain in Galilee. There, he gives them the Great Commission, to go out into the world and baptize all in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Jesus could have appeared to thousands, yet he knew these eleven "candles" would be capable of following his commandments and spreading his promise of eternal life.

Today is the feast of the Most Holy Trinity, a remembrance of Christ's directive of a new mission for his followers to baptize in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us that this mandate is our invitation to join in the one family of God, fully united and complete (CCC 959). Two thousand years ago, eleven men set out, tasked with beginning the fulfillment of the New Covenant by bringing all who would believe into the loving arms of God. Today, turn to others and offer them the light of life.

Church at Home Combined Collection

This weekend parishes in our diocese will participate in the combined collection for three major Church at Home ministries. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development provides local diocesan and national support for groups of low-income persons to change their lives. Twenty-five percent of the CCHD collection stays in the Diocese to support local efforts. The Catholic Communication Campaign supports the efforts of the Catholic Television Network of Youngstown (CTNY) and other national telecommunications services to help spread the Word of God. Fifty percent of the CCC collection stays in the Diocese. The Catholic University of America and Newman Campus Ministries continue the educational programs at the national university of our Catholic Church. Your generous support is greatly appreciated.

Stewardship Thought

Today's second reading reminds us that we are the children - the heirs - of God. We are good stewards of our inheritance when we share our faith and fulfill our Lord's command to "go . . .and make disciples of all nations."

A Family Perspective

By Bud Ozar

In today's gospel Jesus told his disciples "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot hear it now." Jesus has the same problem with us as we do with our children. Our advice is not always welcome. Time was a challenge for Jesus as it is for us as parents.
